This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

OF THE

[As amended at the Congress held at Washington, D.C., April 30, 1894.]

ARTICLE I.

NAME.

THE name of this Society shall be

THE SONS OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION.

ARTICLE II.

OBJECTS.

The objects of this Society shall be to perpetuate the memory of the men who, by their services or sacrifices during the War of the American Revolution, achieved the independence of the American people; to unite and promote fellowship among their descendants; to inspire them and the community at large with a more profound reverence for the principles of the government founded by our forefathers; to encourage historical research in relation to the American Revolution; to acquire and preserve the records of the individual services of the patriots of the War, as well as documents, relics, and landmarks; to mark the scenes of the Revolution by appropriate memorials; to celebrate the anniversaries of the prominent events of the War; to foster true patriotism; to maintain and extend the institutions of American freedom; and to carry out the purposes expressed in the preamble to the Constitution of our Country and the injunctions of Washington in his Farewell Address to the American people.

ARTICLE III.

MEMBERSHIP.

SECTION 1. Any man shall be eligible to membership in this Society who, being of the age of twenty-one years or over, and a citizen of good repute in the community, is the lineal descendant of an ancestor who was at all times unfailing in his loyalty to and rendered actual service in the cause of American Independence, either as an officer, soldier, seaman, marine, militia-man, or minute-man in the armed forces of the Continental Congress, or of any one of the several Colonies or States; or as a Signer of the Declaration of Independence; or as a member of a Committee of Safety or Correspondence; or as a member of any Continental, Provincial, or Colonial Congress or Legislature; or as a civil officer, either of one of the Colonies or States or of the national government; or as a recognized patriot who performed actual service by overt acts of resistance to the authority of Great Britain.

SECT. 2. Applications for membership shall be made to any State Society, in duplicate, upon blank forms prescribed by the General Board of Managers, and shall in each case set forth the name, occupation, and residence of the applicant, his line of descent, and the name, residence, and services of his ancestor or ancestors in the Revolution, from whom he derives eligibility. The applicant shall make oath that the statements of his application are true, to the best of his knowledge and belief. Upon the approval of an application by the State Society, to which it is made, one copy shall be transmitted to the Registrar-General of the National Society, who shall examine further the eligibility of the applicant. If satisfied that the member is not eligible, he shall return the application for correction. No election of a new member shall be valid, unless his eligibility shall be approved by the Registrar-General; and in case of such return the State Society shall, in failure to satisfy the Registrar-General of the eligibility of such applicant, drop his name from membership.

SECT. 3. The official designation of the members of the Society of the Sons of the American Revolution shall be "Compatriots."

ARTICLE IV.

NATIONAL AND STATE SOCIETIES.

SECTION 1. The National Society shall embrace all the members of the State Societies of the Sons of the American Revolution, now existing or which may hereafter be established under this Constitution.

SECT. 2. Whenever in any State or Territory, in which a State Society does not exist, or in which a State Society has become inactive or failed for two years to pay its annual dues to the National Society, fifteen or more persons duly qualified for membership in this Society may associate themselves as a State Society of the Sons of the American Revolution, and organize in accordance with this Constitution, they may be admitted by the General Board of Managers to the National Society as "The ——— Society of the Sons of the American Revolution," and shall thereafter have exclusive local jurisdiction in the State or Territory or in the District in which they are organized, subject to the provisions of this Constitution; but this provision shall not be construed so as to exclude the admission of members living in other States.

SECT. 3. Each State Society shall judge of the qualifications of its members and of those proposed for membership, subject to the provisions of this Constitution, and shall regulate all matters pertaining to its own affairs. It shall have authority to establish local chapters within its own jurisdiction, and to endow the chapters with such power as it may deem proper, not inconsistent with this Constitution. It shall have authority, after due notice and impartial trial, to expel any member who, by conduct unbecoming a gentleman, shall render himself unworthy to remain a member of the Society.

SECT. 4. Each State Society shall submit to the Annual Congress of the National Society a report, setting forth by name the additions, transfers, and deaths, and any other changes in the membership and progress of the State Society during the preceding year, and make such suggestions as it shall deem proper for the promotion of the objects of the whole order.

SECT. 5. Whenever a member in good standing in his Society changes his residence from the jurisdiction of the State Society of which he is a member to that of another, he shall be entitled, if he so elects, to a certificate of honorable dismission from his own State Society, in order that he may be transferred to the State Society to whose jurisdiction he has changed his residence; provided that his membership shall continue in the former until he shall have been elected a member of the latter. Each State Society shall, however, retain full control of the admission of members by transfer.

SECT. 6. Wherever the word "State" occurs in this Constitution, it shall be held to include within its meaning the District of Columbia and the Territories of the United States.

SECT. 7. A Society may be formed in any foreign country by fifteen or more persons who are eligible to membership under this Constitution, which shall bear the same relation to the National organization as the State Society, subject to the provisions of this Constitution.

ARTICLE V.

OFFICERS AND MANAGERS.

SECTION 1. The General Officers of the National Society shall be a President-General, five Vice-Presidents-General, a Secretary-General, Treasurer-General, Registrar-General, Historian-General, and Chaplain-General, who shall be elected by ballot by a vote of the majority of the members present at the annual meeting of the Congress of the National Society, and shall hold office for one year and until their successors are elected.

SECT. 2. The General Officers, together with the Presidents of the State Societies ex officio, shall constitute the General Board of Managers of the National Society, which Board shall have authority to adopt and promulgate the By-laws of the National Society, to prescribe the duties of the General Officers, to provide the seal, to designate and make regulations for the issue of the insignia, and to transact the general business of the National Society during the intervals between the sessions of the Congress. Meetings of the General Board may be held, after not less than ten days' notice, at the call of the President-General, or, in case of his absence or inability, at the call of the senior Vice-President-General, certified by the Secretary-General. Meetings shall be called at the request of seven members. At all such meetings, seven shall constitute a quorum.

SECT. 3. An Executive Committee of seven, of whom the President-General shall be Chairman, may be elected by the Board of Managers, which Committee shall, in the interim between the meetings of the Board, transact such business as may be delegated to it by the Board of Managers.

ARTICLE VI.

DUES.

Each State Society shall pay annually to the Treasurer-General, to defray the expenses of the National Society, twenty-five cents for each active member thereof, unless intermitted by the National Congress. Provided that the National Board of Management may increase said dues at any time not to exceed fifty cents in all by a two-thirds vote when the necessities of the National Society so demand. All such dues shall be paid on or before the first day of April in each year for the ensuing year, in order to secure representation in the Congress of the National Society.

ARTICLE VII.

MEETINGS AND ELECTIONS.

SECTION 1. The annual Congress of the National Society for the election of the General Officers and for the transaction of business shall be held on the thirtieth day of April, or on the first day of May, in every year. The time, hour, and place of such meeting shall be designated by the Board of Managers.

SECT. 2. Special meetings of the Congress may be called by the President-General, and shall be called by him when directed so to do by the Board of Managers, or whenever requested in writing so to do by at least five State Societies, on giving thirty days' notice, specifying the time and place of such meeting and the business to be transacted.

SECT. 3. The following shall be members of all such annual or special meetings of the Congress, and shall be entitled to vote therein: —

1. All the Officers and the ex-Presidents-General of the National Society.

2. The President and Senior Vice-President of each State Society.

3. One delegate at large from each State Society.

4. One delegate for every one hundred members of the Society within a State, and for a fraction of fifty or over.

ARTICLE VIII.

AMENDMENTS.

The Constitution may be altered or amended at any meeting of the Congress of the National Society, provided that sixty days' notice of the proposed alterations or amendments, which shall first have been recommended by a State Society, shall be sent by the Secretary-General to the President of each State Society. A vote of two-thirds of those present shall be necessary to their adoption.

institutions of American freedom; to foster true patriotism and love of country; and to aid in securing for mankind all the blessings of liberty.

ARTICLE III.

MEMBERSHIP.

Any man is eligible for membership who is of the age of twenty-one years, and who is descended from an ancestor who, with unfailing loyalty, rendered material aid to the cause of American Independence, as a soldier or as a seaman, or a civil officer in one of the several Colonies or States, or of the United Colonies or States, as a recognized patriot; provided that he shall be found worthy.

A Charter may be granted to such Chapter by the Board of Managers, upon application in writing of ten or more members of the Society, stating name to be assumed, the location, and names of its proposed members. Such Chapter may enact a Constitution and By-laws not inconsistent with those of the National Society, or of this Society.

No person shall be admitted to such Chapter unless he is a member in good standing of THE MASSACHUSETTS SOCIETY OF THE SONS OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION; and all members of this Society of the Sons of the American Revolution, resident within the territory of such Chapter, shall be eligible to membership therein. If any member of such Chapter should cease to be a member of the State Society, his membership in the Chapter shall also cease.

Membership in Chapters shall not in any way change the relations of members to the State Society, nor impair obligations of payment of dues and other requisitions of the Constitution and By-laws of said Society.

Every Chapter shall annually report a list of officers and members to the Secretary of the State Society on the first of April.

ARTICLE VI.

QUORUM.

A quorum of the Society for the transaction of business shall consist of forty members; of the Managers, five members; but a less number may adjourn.

HISTORICAL SKETCH OF THE SOCIETY.

OCTOBER, 1896 — APRIL, 1899.

RESUMING the abstracts from the Records, which closed October 19, 1896, with an account of the fall field day at Newburyport, the next item of general interest was the unveiling of a monument to Colonel Israel Hutchinson at Danversport, November 10, 1896, under the auspices of the Danvers Historical Society. Delegates from the State Society and from "Old Salem" Chapter of the Sons of the American Revolution were present. The monument stands in the square opposite the railroad station on the site of Colonel Hutchinson's home. It is a beautiful granite monument, bearing this inscription: —

ISRAEL HUTCHINSON

Served his country as Sergeant; company of Rangers, 1757; Lieutenant, Lake George and Ticonderoga, 1758; Captain, Quebec, 1758; Colonel, Siege of Boston, New York, New Jersey, Crossing of the Delaware; Trenton. His men manned boats in retreat from Long Island; Representative and Councillor twenty-one years; an honored citizen and loyal soldier.

On the 18th of November, 1896, a delegation from this Society assisted the town officials of Newbury in placing markers at the graves of thirty of its soldiers of the Revolution.

At the Managers' meeting, December 4, 1896, appropriate resolutions were adopted in respect to the memory of the late Benjamin Apthorp Gould, LL.D., a Vice-President of the Society, who died November 26, 1896.

January 1, 1897. The Rev. C. A. Staples prepared a circular, which was adopted by the Managers, and sent to the Clerks of all cities and towns in the State, asking their co-operation in securing a fitting and universal observance of the Fourth of July.

An appropriation of $200 was made to the fund for saving the historic Hancock-Clarke house, in Lexington, from threatened demolition.

The cordial good wishes of the Society were extended to the Hawaiian Society, Sons of the American Revolution, in return for the kindly greeting sent by them to this Society, through Captain Nathan Appleton on his recent visit to Honolulu.

February 3, 1897. A charter was granted to members of the Society residing in Chelsea and its vicinity for a chapter to be entitled "Old Suffolk."

It was voted to send a bronze marker, and tablet, to Washington, D.C., to be placed at the tomb of Elbridge Gerry, one of the Massachusetts signers of the Declaration of Independence.

March 5, 1897. The President and others appeared before the Committee on Military Affairs at the State House, and advocated the erection of a monument on South Boston Heights to commemorate the evacuation of Boston by the British March 17, 1776; also for the erection of a statue of Major-General Benjamin Lincoln.

April 2, 1897. A charter was granted to members of the Society residing in Worcester to form a chapter to be entitled the "Worcester Chapter."

April 19, 1897. The eighth anniversary of the formation of the Society was observed by holding its annual meeting in the Old South Meeting-house, Boston. The principal business of the day was reading the reports of the officers and the adoption of the following resolutions: —

For the passage of laws to protect the National Flag from being used as an advertising medium; the erection of a monument on "Dorchester Heights," now South Boston, to commemorate the bloodless victory over the British, brought about by the superior skill and strategy of General Washington in seizing and fortifying Dorchester Heights, which resulted in the evacuation of Boston; favoring the removal of the frigate "Constitution" from Portsmouth, N.H., to Boston, where she was built and where she properly belongs; commending to the Legislature the passage of the Resolve now before the General Court in favor of the erection of a statue of Major-General Benjamin Lincoln; requesting the Mayor of Boston to take active measures to preserve Faneuil Hall from the danger of destruction by fire, which threatens it by its being occupied as a market; and the appointment of a committee to place a memorial bowlder and tablet in the old Dorchester burial-ground to mark the place of burial of forty soldiers of the Revolutionary War.

The following-named members of the Society were appointed as delegates to the Convention of the National Society to be held in Cleveland, April 30, 1897; namely, Edwin S. Barrett, Charles M. Green, M.D., Charles L. Parker, Jerome Marble, F. C. Hayward, Charles B. Holman, Shepard D. Gilbert, Horace A. Massey, George E. Bowman, Willis C. Hardy, Eugene F. Endicott, Lucius J. Paulint, Edward J. Smith, Frank B. Wardwell.

The meeting then proceeded to the election of officers for the ensuing year. The old board of officers were re-elected with the exception of Secretary George E. Brown, who declined a re-election, and was succeeded by Charles E. Stearns, of Waltham. The following Managers for three years were elected, namely: David H. Coolidge, of Boston; Luke S. Stowe, of Springfield; Curtis Guild, Jr., of Boston; Theodore C. Bates, of Worcester; Eugene F. Endicott, of Chelsea.

The thanks of the Society were given to Mr. George E. Brown, the retiring Secretary, for the very efficient services rendered the Society; and the insignia badge of the Society was presented to Registrar Herbert W. Kimball.

The meeting then adjourned to meet at Hotel Vendome for dinner. The large dining hall had been appropriately decorated, and music was furnished by Carter's Band. After justice had been done to an excellent dinner, President Barrett read letters, regretting their absence, from Secretary Porter, for President McKinley; General Horace Porter; and General J. C. Breckinridge.

The following resolution was unanimously adopted: —

Resolved, That the Massachusetts Society of the Sons of the American Revolution extends its hearty congratulations to General Horace Porter, the President-General of the National Society, on his appointment to the very important position of ambassador to France, and also congratulates the country that the services of so valuable a representative have been secured.

The following gentlemen were introduced by the President, and spoke, to the great pleasure of the members: Hon. Josiah Quincy; Hon. Alfred S. Roe; Clement K. Fay, President of the Massachusetts Society of Sons of the Revolution; Walter S. Logan, Vice-President of the New York State Society of Sons of the American Revolution; Colonel William M. Olin, Secretary of State; A. J. C. Sowdon, President of the Massachusetts Society of Colonial Wars; Hon. Gorham D. Gilman.

The following resolution was adopted: —

Resolved, That the Massachusetts Society of Sons of the American Revolution, at banquet table assembled, send fraternal greetings to the Society of the Sons of the American Revolution at Honolulu, Hawaiian Islands. "May the memories of the Fathers be ever guarded and preserved with patriotic zeal by their loyal descendants in whatever part of the world their lot may be cast!"

May 7, 1897. A charter was granted to members of the Society residing in Newton, to form a chapter to be called the "Newtowne"; also one was granted to residents of Lawrence, to be called the "Colonel James Frye Chapter."

The thanks of the Managers were given to George E. Harrington, of Sudbury, for a copy of the exercises at the dedication of a monument to the Revolutionary soldiers from Sudbury, an account of which is given in the 1897 year book.

It was voted to place bronze markers at the graves of James Sullivan, Increase Sumner, John Winslow, and William Dawes, Jr., soldiers and patriots of the war of the Revolution.

June 4, 1897. A charter was granted to members residing in Pittsfield and vicinity to form a chapter to be called the "Berkshire County."

The following resolution was adopted: —

Resolved, That we renew our recommendation to the cities and towns of the Commonwealth for a more appropriate observance of Independence Day in the way of public addresses upon Revolutionary or patriotic themes, reading of the Declaration of Independence, or by any method conducive to a higher and more patriotic citizenship. And, as the Fourth of July this year falls on Sunday, we further recommend that the clergy of the Commonwealth recognize the day in the service of their respective churches.

The vacancy in the Board of Managers caused by the resignation of Curtis Guild, Jr., was filled by the election of the Hon. S. Stillman Blanchard, of Boston.

July 2, 1897. The thanks of the Society were given to Mrs. Elizabeth C. Osborne, of Peabody, in recognition of her efficient services in searching for and finding the graves of many Revolutionary soldiers buried in that town, which were duly marked May 29, 1897.

A vote of thanks was given to Francis H. Brown, M.D., for his efficient, painstaking, and successful labor in the preparation and publication of the Society's (1897) Historical Memoranda.

September 3, 1897. A charter was granted to members of the Society residing in Taunton and its vicinity, to form a chapter to be called the "Robert Treat Paine."

A bronze marker bearing a tablet inscribed, "Here were buried a large number of soldiers of the American Revolution," was placed by the Society in the Dorchester cemetery, corner of Stoughton and Boston Streets.

A committee of thirteen members of the Society of which General F. H. Appleton is chairman, were appointed to act as a subcommittee of the Flag Committee of the National Society of the Sons of the American Revolution.

October 1, 1897. It was voted to instruct President Barrett and Major C. K. Darling (the delegates to the Convention at Cincinnati, October 12) to make every effort possible to further the proposed union of the two Societies.

October 19, 1897. The fall field day was held this year at Plymouth. This being the third time the Society has visited this interesting town, the programme did not materially differ from that of previous visits. After the dinner, at the Samoset House, an interesting historical address was delivered by the Hon. Arthur Lord, President of the Pilgrim Society. Short speeches were made by the Hon. Gorham D. Gilman, the Rev. Charles F. Lombard, and Archibald M. Howe, Esq.

November 5, 1897. It was voted to recommend to the Society the adoption of the new Constitution of the proposed National Society of the American Revolution adopted by the National Society of each organization at Cincinnati, October 12, and to ratify the same at a meeting to be held in Boston, November 15. President Barrett, General F. H. Appleton, and Horace E. Ware were appointed a committee to arrange for the meeting.

It was voted to extend the thanks of the Society to the delegates who attended the Cincinnati Convention.

It was voted to petition the Board of Government of the city of Boston to make an appropriation of $500 to be used for the purpose of making a search in the cemeteries of Boston for the graves of soldiers of the Revolution, and for marking them with bronze markers.

A charter was granted to members of the Society living in Watertown and its vicinity for a chapter to be called the "Watertown Chapter."

November 15, 1897. A special meeting of the Society was held at Union Hall, Boston, at which the new Constitution of the proposed Society of the American Revolution was unanimously ratified.

A vote of thanks was passed by the Society to John E. Leavitt for a gavel wrought from the wood of the frigate "Constitution." Congratulatory telegrams were sent to the Societies of New York State and the District of Columbia, and also to the Secretary-General of the National Society. The following resolve was also adopted: —

Resolved, That fraternal greetings are hereby extended to our brethren of the Massachusetts Society of the Sons of the Revolution, with the expression of our sincere desire that we may soon be united with them in carrying out the high purposes which it has been the common object of both our Societies to accomplish.

December 3, 1897. It was voted to place a bronze marker, with a suitably inscribed tablet, at the burial-place of the eminent, patriotic statesman, James Otis.

January 7, 1898. It was voted to co-operate with the Ticonderoga Historical Society in reference to its proposed Congressional bill looking to government ownership of old Fort Ticonderoga.

It was voted to add to the Flag Committee Captain Philip Reade of the United States Army; and the sum of $20 was appropriated to aid the National Flag Committee in carrying forward its work.

The thanks of the Society were extended to Secretary W. M. Olin for the gift of copies of "Massachusetts Soldiers and Sailors of the War of the Revolution."

February 4, 1898. It was voted to renew the subscription for twenty-five copies of the Spirit of '76 magazine, to be presented to an equal number of public libraries in country towns of the State.

March 4, 1898. President Barrett reported that the plan of union of the two Societies of Sons had failed, but through no fault of the National Society of Sons of the American Revolution. He also stated that the Committee on Military Affairs had reported a bill to the Legislature for the appropriation of $25,000 for a monument on Dorchester Heights.

A charter was granted to ten members of the Society residing in Cambridge for a chapter to be called the "Washington Elm."

A resolution was adopted approving of the concentrated action of the National Flag Committee at its meeting held in the Council Chamber of City Hall, New York City.

April 19, 1898. The ninth anniversary of the formation of the Society was observed at its annual meeting held in Association Hall, Boston. The annual reports of the President, Secretary, Treasurer, Registrar, and Historian, were read by those officials; and it was voted that they be accepted, and placed on file. The Secretary, Charles E. Stearns, referred to the action of the Congress of the National Society at Cleveland, Ohio, in April last, and fittingly recognized the honor paid the Massachusetts Society in selecting its President, Edwin Shepard Barrett, for the office of President also of the National Society, to which position he was elected by a large vote, succeeding thereby General Horace Porter, now the ambassador to France.

The Registrar, Herbert W. Kimball, reported the membership to be one thousand three hundred and twenty-three, of which twenty-three were actual sons of soldiers of the Revolution, or honorary members (and exempt from admission or annual dues). During the year two hundred and eighteen members have been admitted, and two reinstated. Four had been transferred to other State Societies. There have been nineteen deaths in the Society. Sixteen members have resigned. Eighteen forfeited their membership because of failure to pay dues. There are now ten life members. Out of two hundred and nineteen application papers received during the year, but one was rejected for insufficient proof of service of the ancestor.

The Historian, Major Charles K. Darling, gave many facts of interest regarding the old and new chapters, the necrology of the Society, and other matters in detail. The report of the Treasurer, Dr. Charles M. Green, showed the Society to be in excellent financial condition.

On motion of Colonel Ephraim Stearns a resolution was adopted conveying to President McKinley the approval of his action throughout the present war crisis, and assuring him of the entire sympathy of the meeting with the course he had pursued.

The election of officers for the ensuing year was then held. The only change from last year's officers was in the Presidency. Edwin S. Barrett having served as President for seven years, declined renomination. General Francis H. Appleton, of Peabody, was elected President; and the following list of Managers for three years: Edwin S. Barrett, Concord; Gorham D. Gilman, Newton; Shepard D. Gilbert, Salem; Francis H. Lincoln, Hingham; Prescott Chamberlain, Chelsea; for one year to fill the unexpired term of F. H. Appleton, M. Everett Ware, Brookline.

Following the business of the meeting, the members adjourned to the Hotel Vendome, where the annual dinner was served, previous to which an informal reception was held by President-elect Francis Henry Appleton. The dining-room was beautifully decorated with American flags, and Daggett's Orchestra discoursed patriotic music. After dinner, speeches were made by Bishop William Lawrence, of Massachusetts; Mr. A. J. C. Sowdon; Major Frank H. Briggs; Mayor Quincy; Sir Dominic E. Colnaghi, the British consul; and President-elect Appleton.

April 27, 1898. The delegates to the National Society's Congress to be held in Morristown, New Jersey, April 30, were Edwin S. Barrett, Walter E. Burdaken, Prescott Chamberlain, Eugene F. Endicott, A. A. Folsom, Shepard D. Gilbert, Gorham D. Gilman, Willis C. Hardy, Charles B. Holman, Israel Harmon, Moses G.

Parker, B. Read Wales, Nathan Warren, Frank V. Wright. They were requested by the Managers to suggest to the Congress that the National Society should take the necessary steps to change the name to the Society of the American Revolution. They also voted to recommend to the Executive Committee that the colors of the rosette be changed to buff, blue, and white.

July 1, 1898. William Lithgow Willey, of Boston, was appointed Acting Secretary to serve during the absence of Lieutenant Charles E. Stearns, Company F, Fifth Regiment, Massachusetts Volunteers, who is in active service for the country in its war with Spain.

One hundred dollars were contributed from the treasury of the Society to the Massachusetts Volunteer Aid Association, which was organized for relief work similar to that done by the Sanitary Commission during the Civil War, and in co-operation with a Ladies' Relief Committee performed a public service of great benefit and importance. It equipped a hospital ship, the "Bay State," with every appliance which could minister to the comfort and recovery of those committed to its care, and placed it in charge of skilful and devoted surgeons and nurses.

On that vessel our associate member, Dr. H. L. Burrell, occupied the position of Surgeon Superintendent.

It was voted to co-operate with other patriotic societies in purchasing suitable pictures for the new Paul Revere School-house in Boston, and the sum of one hundred and ten dollars was appropriated for that purpose. The portraits were those of George Washington and Martha Washington, Benjamin Franklin, Thomas Jefferson, James Madison, John Jay, Minute-man at Concord, Boston Massacre. The busts were of General Lafayette and General Joseph Warren. A brass plate, inscribed as follows, was placed on the door of the school-room: "To promote liberty and loyalty, the Portraits and Busts in this room were given to the Paul Revere School by the Massachusetts Society Sons of the American Revolution."

President Appleton gave an interesting account of the dedication of a monument to Major-General Seth Pomroy at Peekskill, New York, June 17, at which he was present as a representative for Governor Wolcott, who was unable to attend.

Resolutions were adopted in commendation of the signal act of heroism of Lieutenant Frank H. Newcomb, a member of this Society, who on the 11th of May, 1898, was in command of the revenue cutter "Hudson," which rescued from destruction the torpedo boat "Winslow," in the face of a galling fire from the Spanish batteries at Cardenas Bay.

A bronze marker was ordered to be placed at the grave of Major-General Henry Jackson in Forest Hill Cemetery by a committee from the Society.

September 2, 1898. The Registrar stated that the bronze marker voted by the Board of Managers had been sent to the Hon. Edgar M. Warner, of Putnam, Connecticut, who on the 12th of July placed it at the grave of General Israel Putnam in Brooklyn (Connecticut) Cemetery. The placing of the marker was made the occasion of an interesting ceremony under the co-operation of Judge Warner and Hon. H. M. Cleveland, who represented the heirs of the general. A large party of ladies and gentlemen assembled. A flag was placed on the marker, and appropriate addresses were made.

October 19, 1898. The fall field day was held at Portsmouth, New Hampshire. The Society were the guests of the Paul Jones Club of that city. Through the courtesy of Commodore Remey of the Navy Yard an excursion down the river on the steamer "Piscataqua" had been planned; but, owing to an accident to the boat, this part of the programme was not carried out.

Another government tug was placed at the disposal of the party, which conveyed them to the Navy Yard; and then the party walked over to Seavey's Island, the place where the captured Spaniards of Cervera's fleet were imprisoned. Commander Bleaker, Lieutenant Colonel Meade, and Dr. W. O. Junkins, President of the Paul Jones Club, acted as guides. Returning to Portsmouth, dinner was served at Philbrick Hall. An orchestra furnished music during the banquet. After dinner, speeches were made by President F. H. Appleton, Dr. W. O. Jenkins, the Rev. Henry E. Hovey, Commander Bleaker, the Rev. H. A. Philbrook, and the Rev. W. E. Barton. Carriages were then taken for a drive around the city to see places of Colonial and Revolutionary history. Rain fell in torrents before all the rounds had been made, but the journey was not interrupted.

The field day excursion was in charge of a committee, consisting of General F. H. Appleton, the Hon. S. Stillman Blanchard, Prescott Chamberlin, Herbert W. Kimball, Dr. Junkins, O. L. Frisbee, and N. A. Walcott.

December 2, 1898. In response to an appeal for aid from the vestry of Christ Church, Boston, known as the Old North Church, the Managers voted to appropriate fifty dollars to assist in repairing this historic structure, which was built in 1723. Not only because of its fame as the place from which the signals were made to apprise Paul Revere's friends of the departure of the British soldiers for Concord on the night of April 18, 1775, but also "it should be preserved as a shrine of patriotism, a memorial of the past, and an inspiration for the future."

January 10, 1899. A public meeting, under the auspices of the Sons of the Revolution, was held at Association Hall for the purpose of taking action in aid of the erection of the proposed monument to Major-General Lafayette in Paris. A cordial invitation was extended to all patriotic societies, and the Sons of the American Revolution were well represented. The meeting was addressed by the Hon. Josiah Quincy; the Hon. Ferdinand W. Peck, Commissioner-General for the United States at the Paris Exposition; the Hon. George v. L. Meyer, Chairman of the Massachusetts Board of Commissioners to the Paris Exposition of 1900; the Rev. Edward Everett Hale; and General F. H. Appleton, President of this Society.

February 3, 1899. The Managers at their meeting held this day adopted the following resolutions on the death of the Hon. Edwin Shepard Barrett: —

Whereas we have lost from our number, on December 21, 1898, Edwin Shepard Barrett, President of the State Society from April 19, 1891, to April 19, 1898, and President-General of the National Society of Sons of the American Revolution from April 30, 1897, until his death,—

Resolved, That we recognize in him one who has unselfishly devoted his time and work to the welfare in every way of the patriotic societies in which he has held important positions. Born in Concord, his home overlooked the historic battle-ground near "by the rude bridge that arched the flood," and gave him an inspiration and love of country and patriotic work.

Resolved, That we inscribe upon our Records our high sense of esteem and respect for him as a man and an associate, and convey to his widow and family our sympathy for them in the loss which they have sustained.

Mr. Barrett was born in Concord, October 31, 1833; became a member of the Society July 5, 1889; and the same year was elected a manager; Vice-President in 1890; President 1891–98, and manager 1898. He was identified with every meeting held by the Society except its last fall field day at Portsmouth, New Hampshire; and that he would have attended, had he not felt it his duty to represent the Society at the dedication of the Paul Revere School-house, which occurred the same day.

Mr. Barrett had frequently occupied positions of trust and responsibility, the duties of which he discharged with marked fidelity. His self-respect, dignity, and honesty of purpose were traits of his character which will make his name a pleasant memory to all who have had the pleasure of his acquaintance.*

March 3, 1899. President Francis H. Appleton was elected a member of the Committee on Co-operation, to be composed of delegates from each Society and Chapter, which shall consider and act upon matters which come within the limits of their respective constitutions and by-laws, when united effort is essential to secure the best results.

April 19, 1899. The tenth annual meeting of the Society was held this day at Horticultural Hall, Boston. The business meeting began at eleven o'clock A.M., President Francis H. Appleton in the chair.

President Appleton, in his annual address to the members, paid special tribute to the late Hon. Edwin Shepard Barrett, whose services to both the National and State Societies were of such great value. He spoke of the passage of the State law recently enacted to protect the National and State flags from being used as advertising mediums and otherwise desecrated, and mentioned that he had suggested to Governor Wolcott that the pen with which the Governor signed the bill be given to the Massachusetts Charitable Mechanics' Association, with the request that it should be presented to Mrs. William Lee, who so efficiently directed the patriotic work at the triennial exhibition of the association last fall.

The reports of the Secretary, Charles E. Stearns, the Treasurer, Dr. Charles M. Green, the Registrar, Herbert W. Kimball, and the Historian, Major Charles K. Darling, all showed the Society to be in a flourishing condition.

Treasurer Green reported that the receipts during the year were $3,593.63, which, with the balance on hand a year ago, made a total of $3,603.37. The expenditures had been $2,317.96, leaving a balance on hand of $1,285.41. From this there had been transferred to the permanent fund $713, leaving a net balance on hand of $572.41. The permanent fund amounts to $1,979.

The report of the Registrar showed a membership of 1,373,—a net increase of 50 since the last annual meeting. The losses were: from deaths, 24; from resignations, 19; from transfers to other States, 2. 25 members are actual sons of soldiers of the Revolutionary War, and, by vote of the Managers, are considered as honorary members. 2 members are great-great-grandsons of General Lafayette.

During the year the work of recording the names and places of burial of all soldiers of the Revolution at whose graves markers were placed has been continued by Mr. Henry A. May, a member of the Society; and the list now comprises 3,705, of which 3,275 are in Massachusetts, 6 in Maine, 113 in New Hampshire, 2 in Vermont, 208 in Rhode Island, 13 in Connecticut, 25 in New York, 58 in New Jersey, 1 in Pennsylvania, 2 in Kentucky.

There were 48 members of the Massachusetts Society in the army or navy during the Spanish-American War. The only member killed was Captain Walter M. Dickinson, who was in Lawton's brigade, and died from wounds received at El Caney, Cuba. Historian Darling read the obituary notices of 24 members of the Society who had died during the year. He reviewed the work done by the various Chapters and their condition at this time, and made an emphatic appeal for the preservation of the Washington Elm in Cambridge, saying that the Chapter there should make special effort to prolong the life of the tree.

Rev. C. A. Staples spoke of a bowlder which had been placed beside the old Concord road, in Lincoln, to mark the end of the midnight ride of Paul Revere. The inscription on the bowlder was written by Hon. Charles Francis Adams. The next business of the meeting was the election of officers for the ensuing year, a list of which appears in another place, and the appointment of delegates to the Congress of the National Society to be held in Detroit, May 1 and 2. The meeting then adjourned to meet in the upper hall at one o'clock, where the banquet took place, the President presiding. The hall was beautifully decorated with red, white, and blue bunting, caught up here and there by large American flags on the sides, and over the tables with great ingenuity. Daggett's Band discoursed stirring music during the banquet.

Among the special guests and speakers were the Rev. Leighton Parks, D.D.; Edward A. Sumner and C. A. Pugsley, of the Empire State Society; Rev. Roswell R. Hoes, Chaplain, U.S.N.; E. Cushman Jones, President of the Sons of the American Revolution Society in Honolulu; and Rear-Admiral George E. Belknap, U.S.N., retired.

cans not far from the field, the British soldiers came in sight. He immediately pointed them out to his companions, saying, "If you aim at the middle one, you will hit one of the three." They did so, and were successful; but, as he held out his hand, a musket-ball passed through it. He coolly bound up his hand with his handkerchief, picked up the gun of the fallen regular, and carried it home as a trophy.

GENERAL INFORMATION

AND

MATTERS OF HISTORICAL INTEREST.

SEAL.

THE Seal of the National Society is one and seven-eighths of an inch in diameter, and consists of the figure of a Minute-man standing by the side of a plough, surrounded by thirteen stars; the whole encircled by a band three-eighths of an inch wide, upon which in raised letters is the name of the Society, with the date of organization. That of the State Society is identical with that of the National Society, except that within the name of the parent society is the motto "Massachusetts Society, organized April 19, 1889."

INSIGNIA.

THE BADGE. — Obverse: A gold cross of four arms and eight points, of the same size as the Chevalier's Cross of the French Legion of Honor, with white enamelled arms. In the centre is a gold medallion bust of George Washington in profile, surrounded by a ribbon in blue enamel, on which is the motto of the Society in gold letters, "Libertas et Patria." Between the medallion and the points of the cross is a laurel wreath. Reverse: Like the obverse; the medallion, however, has the figure of a Minute-man, surrounded by a ribbon in blue enamel, containing in gold letters the words, "Sons of the American Revolution." The cross is surmounted by an eagle in gold, suspended by a silk ribbon of blue, white, and buff.

The cross is a reproduction of the emblem of the French Order of St. Louis, with certain changes, and was adopted to commemorate the assistance given to the Colonies by Louis XVI., Grand Master of that Order. The medallion, containing the head of Washington and the figure of the Minute-man, is fitly placed upon a cross of such an origin and associations.

THE ROSETTE.— The rosette is a button in the shape of a raised cup, of blue, white, and buff ribbon. It is to be worn in the upper left-hand button-hole of the coat.

The only badge now authorized by the National Congress is that described above, superseding all forms previously used. The price of the badge, or cross of St. Louis, adapted to this Society, is nine dollars. It may be obtained of Messrs. Tiffany & Co., of New York, on presentation of a certificate of membership, which will be furnished by the Registrar. The rosette may be procured of the Registrar for twenty-five cents.

MARKERS.

THE subject of identifying and marking the graves of the Revolutionary Soldiers of Massachusetts has for some time engaged the attention of many of their descendants, who feel that, as time rolls on, the locality of these graves may be obliterated and lost.

The General Court, by an Act passed in 1884, Chap. 42, authorized towns to appropriate money for the purpose as follows: —

"An Act to authorize towns to grant and vote money for certain memorial purposes: Towns may at legal meetings grant and vote such sums as they judge necessary for the purpose of erecting headstones or other monuments to the memory of persons who, accredited to their respective quotas, served in the military or naval service of the United States in the Revolutionary War, the War of 1812, the Seminole War, and the Mexican War; and for keeping in repair and decorating such monuments and the graves of such persons."

The Massachusetts Society of the Sons of the American Revolution has procured a design and caused it to be cast in iron and bronze, which will, at slight cost, mark the graves of our Revolutionary heroes. The National Society of the Sons of the American Revolution has adopted our marker, and many have been ordered for the different States of the Union. The dimensions of the marker are 28 inches from ground to top of cross; whole height to top of cross, 38 inches; cross, 11½ inches in diameter, with the figure of the Concord Minute-man in the centre. Each arm of the cross contains a letter of the inscription, S. A. R. (Soldier or Sailor of the American Revolution), the lower arm having the date 1775. In this way the graves of thousands of soldiers and sailors may be identified and marked, and on each recurring Memorial Day receive the homage of a grateful people.

The managers have twice addressed circulars to the officers of the various cities and towns of the Commonwealth, asking them to insert a clause in the warrants for annual meetings, appropriating a sum of money to purchase such Revolutionary markers as may be required. Since that time about 3,400 graves have been identified and marked in the following cities and towns in the Commonwealth:

Acton,	Duxbury,	Medford,
Agawam,	East Bridgewater,	Millbury,

Besides these, the other New England States, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, and Kentucky, have placed 428 markers at the graves of Revolutionary heroes,— in all, about 3,800.

The cost of the marker, in iron, is one dollar; in bronze, three and a half dollars.

In addition to the marker, a tablet in bronze, costing from $2.50 to $5.50, may be procured, upon which the name of the soldier may be inscribed.

Orders may be addressed to the manufacturers, M. D. Jones & Co., 53 Portland Street, Boston.

INFORMATION.

MEMBERSHIP in this Society is strictly limited by the National and State Constitutions to such persons as can prove their descent from well-authenticated patriot Revolutionary ancestry. Collateral descent has at no time been allowed in this body by prescribed law or otherwise. Appropriate papers and all needed information for making application for admission will be furnished by the Registrar.

APPLICATIONS FOR MEMBERSHIP must be made out in duplicate; must be signed by the applicant on the second and fourth pages; must be sworn to before a justice or a notary; and returned to the Registrar with check for five dollars,— which includes the admission fee and the first year's assessment. Biographical data should be given as fully as possible, and reference to authorities quoted. Care should be taken that all these requirements be carried out, as no imperfectly prepared papers can be received.

The Secretary of most of the States will make a search of the rolls and archives, and furnish an official certificate for a small sum. The Commissioner of Pensions at Washington will furnish a certificate, gratis, if the ancestor was a pensioner.

The CERTIFICATE OF MEMBERSHIP issued by the National Society, handsomely engraved, and of a size suitable for framing, will be furnished for the sum of one dollar in advance. Application to be made to the Registrar.

THE FRENCH ARMY IN BOSTON.

THE reasons which induced his most Christian Majesty Louis XVI. to yield to the entreaties of his ministers and of the commissioners of the United States at the French court, and to sign on the 6th of February, 1778, a treaty of commerce with the United States, to which was added a treaty of offensive and defensive alliance in case England declared war against France, has been fully described by many authors. Reference can easily be made to such accounts by means of Winsor's "Hand-book of the American Revolution." Especial interest centres round the excellent volumes of the late Thomas Balch, published by his son, T. W. Balch of Philadelphia, in 1891 and 1895, which carry the influence of the French people, even from the year 1775, down to the surrender at Yorktown.

The present paper has for its object merely the reproduction of tables showing the marches and encampments of Rochambeau's * army from Newport in Rhode Island until its arrival in Yorktown, and a similar statement of its passage from that town to Boston, from which point the army sailed on its return to France. The action of the Legislature and the town authorities of Boston, during the stay of the army, are added as matters of interest. For the preparation of these papers, some of them hitherto unpublished, the Committee are indebted to Captain Albert A. Folsom, one of our associate members. For an interesting account of the march of the French army, see especially the Journal of Claude Blanchard,† Commissary of the French auxiliary army sent to the United States.

* Jean-Baptiste-Donatien de Vineur, Count de Rochambeau, was born at Vendôme, France, in 1725. His father was Governor of Vendôme and Lieutenant of the Marshals of France. The son entered as cornet the Cavalry Regiment of Saint-Simon on the 24th of May, 1742, and with it went through the campaigns of Bohemia. In 1743 he was Captain, and in 1746 Aide-de-camp of Louis Philippe d'Orléans; in 1747, Colonel of the Infantry Regiment of la Marche; in 1755, Governor of Vendôme, after the death of his father. He was in active service, with added military distinctions, until March 1, 1780, when he was made Lieutenant-General and Commander-in-chief of the expeditionary corps sent to America. The history of the memorable campaign is given in full in the work of Mr. Balch, and elsewhere by various authorities. He returned in 1782, leaving his army under the orders of the Baron de Vioménil and of De Lauzun. In 1791 he was Marshal of France. He died in 1807.

† "Guerre d'Amérique, 1780–1783. Journal de Campagne." Paris, 1881.

This work was published in English in 1876 by Munsell. Drake, in his old "Landmarks of Boston," 1873, gives an account of the reception of the French army.

It is with particular Pleasure that we embrace this Oppertunity of testefying the Singular Respect with which We regard your Excellency, and the gallant Troops under your Command; sent by his most Christian Majesty the † Antoine Charles du Houx Baron de Vioménil, a French General, was born in 1728 at Franconcourt, Lorraine; died at Paris, November 9, 1792. He entered the army at the age of fifteen as Lieutenant; was wounded at the siege of Bergen-op-Zoom, 1747; distinguished himself in command of light troops of Condé's army in the campaigns of Hanover, and also in Corsica, where he earned the brevet of Marshal-de-camp and of companion of St. Louis. In 1770 he assisted the party of the confederation in Poland against the Russian armies; conducted, while there, some important operations, particularly the capture of the castle of Cracow. In 1780 the Baron Vioménil came to America as second in command under Rochambeau, and distinguished himself at the capture of Yorktown, receiving in 1782 the grand cross of St. Louis; made in 1783 Lieutenant-General. At the period of the French Revolution he stood by the king to the last moment, and was so badly wounded in defending him at the attack of the Tuileries, August 10, 1792, that he died a few weeks later. His brother, Charles Joseph Hyacinthe du Houx, Marshal of France, was born in 1734; died at Paris, March 5, 1827; Aide to Chevert in the Seven Years' War; served as a Major-General in Rochambeau's army in America; was Governor of Martinique in 1789–90; served under Condé in 1792–97; was made a Peer in 1814; a Marshal, July 3, 1816; and a Marquis in 1817.

illustrious Ally of the United States, to their Succor and Crowned in this Service with the most brilliant Success and permanent Honors. We Assure your Excellency that no part of the United States, can be impressed More deeply with every Sentiment, becoming the Most Faithful Allies, towards the King your Sovereign, and the Nation which he governs with so much Glory, or can entertain a higher Sense of the great Merits of his Land & Naval Forces in America, than the Inhabitants of Boston.

Our whole Country Attest the perfect Discipline, the uncommon good Order and Civility which these Forces have constantly preserved; a Circumstance among many Others which while it leaves the most agreeable Impression on the Minds of the Inhabitants in every Quarter, and must be extremely favorable to the publick Friendship, Cannot but at the same time hightein our Regard at their Departure. Wherever these Forces may still be employed, May Heaven defend their Persons, prosper their value, and add new Glories to their Names and to that of their Nation.

Your Excellency we are sure will be pleased, that upon this Occasion we do not forget to mention with the Utmost Respect the Name of Count Rochambeau your Predecessor in this important Command, whose distinguished Services in America can never be forgotten, and to whom also we ardently wish every Felicity.

May the happy Alliance with France never be dissolved or impaired in the Support of which Such Expences have been incurred — Such Toils endured — Such invaluable Lives exposed — Such great Actions displayed, and Such genourious Blood Offered. And may the reciprocal Fruits of it to both Nations be perpetually augmented.

On a Motion made — Ordered, That the Honourable Samuel Adams Esqr the Moderator, the Honourable James Sullivan Esqr and Samuel Barret Esqr togeather with the Gentlemen the Selectmen be and hereby are appointed a Committee to wait upon his Excellency the Baron Viomenil General and Commander of the Forces of his most Christian Majesty, with this Address. Then the Meeting was dissolved.

Town Meeting, Wednesday 10 A.M., December 11, 1782.

Samuel Barrett, Esq., Moderator at Faneuil Hall.

The Committee appointed to present the Address of the Town to his Excellency — The Baron Viomenil General and Commander of the Forces of his Most Christian Majesty in the United States.

Reported that they had presented said Address, to which the Baron had been pleased to make Reply — which Reply being presented in French and English, they now laid before the Town.

The Reply in English was read to the Town, and is as follows, — viz:

Gentlemen,

It belonged to the COUNT DE ROCHAMBEAU much more than to myself to receive these distinguished and flattering Testimonies which you have been pleased to give to the Conduct of the Troops, placed by the choice and confidence of the King, in his hands in order to serve the cause of your Liberty. It is by pursuing the intentions of his Majesty, and the Orders, the particular Instructions and the example of the General which he gave us that we have been able to inspire you with these Sentiments of esteem and Attatchment of which you now Assure us in expressions that do us the greatest honor.

All the principal Officers of this Army, are as well as myself, Gentlemen, extremely touched with your Suffrage in their favor; it in a manner insures to them the approbation of the King, and is a very flattering recompence for the care they have taken to maintain Discipline in the Regiments which they command; the other Officers by whom they have been perfectly secured, will also be penetrated with the same sentiments; And the whole Army see with Satisfaction, how thoroughly you are persuaded, that it is the perfect Union that has reigned between the American Troops the Marine of the King and the French Corps under the Orders, of the Count de Rochambeau, that France and the United States are indebted for that Success you so kindly applaud.

Permit me also Gentlemen to sieze the present moment for declaring to you our Admiration of the virtues, the talents, and the accomplishments, which so particularly distinguish his Excellency GENERAL WASHINGTON. We all desire that the homage of our respects, and of our warm wishes for his preservation and happiness, may be agreeable to him as a testimony of the Satisfaction we have had in serving under his Orders.

I may venture to assure you beforehand Gentlemen, that the King will very sensibly feel the good wishes which the Inhabitants of the Town of Boston have so ardently made for the glory of his Reign and the Prosperity of the Nation which he governs. The disinterestedness and the wisdom of the views, of his Majesty — in all that he has done for the Support of the Independence of America do not admit a doubt that the next destination of this Army will still contribute with effieancy to the Compleate establishment of that Object. To whatever part of the Earth his Orders may send it, all who compose this Corps will ever remember with much sensibility, the pleasing wishes you have expressed for us on our departure.

The Assurances of your Affection, and the expression of your desires for the Maintainance of the Alliance which his Majesty regards as one of those happy events that has marked his Reign leaving not the least Room to doubt of the duration of this Union, or the great Advantages that will result from it to the two Nations in all times to come.

For myself nothing Gentlemen could flatter me more than the particular marks you have been pleased to give me of your esteem. I beg you to accept togeather with all the thanks I owe to you, my most sincere respects for the prosperity of the United States in general, and for the happiness of the Citizens of Boston in particular.

Moved and Voted,— That the Town Clerk be directed to publish in the News Papers at the expense of the Town — the Address of the Inhabitants to the Count de Rochambeau the General of the French Army togeather with the Reply made to said Address in both languages.

Claude Blanchard says: —

"On 11th (Nov. 1782) we were at Providence, where I had spent so much time in 1780 and 1781. The entire army was quartered there until M. de Vaudreuil's squadron, in which we were to embark, was ready.

"The artillery went first and set out for Boston where it arrived the 18th.

"Our troops arrived at Boston successively on the 3d, 4th, and 5th of December; and they encamped in the order that they arrived. The weather was very fine, so that Dr. Cooper, the pompous Protestant clergyman whom I have mentioned before, said, 'Heaven smiles upon the troops of France.'

"On the 12th, the members of the assembly of Boston came to congratulate the Baron de Vioménil, who received them in the midst of a large number of officers, of whom I was one. The spokesman, Mr. Samuel Adams, a respectable old man, spoke very spiritedly. His discourse and M. de Vioménil's reply were inserted in the public papers. On the same day the assembly gave a great dinner to M. de Vioménil and the principal officers of the army. It was Mr. Hancock, at that time governor of the State, who presided at it."

Independent Ledger, Monday, December 9, 1782.

"In the last week his most Christian Majesty's regiments, Bourbonois, Sossounis, Sautonge and Deux-Ponts, under command of his Excellency the Baron de Viomenil arrived in Town from the Southward. When we reflect upon the uninterupted harmony that has subsisted between the allied armies, the number and rank of the officers that have left their native country, to embark in the glorious cause of America, we must consider it as a happy presage of the continuance of an alliance formed upon such principles as cannot fail to produce lasting advantages to both nations."

Count Rochambeau and his suite arrived in Providence November 9, where he received great attention. A grand ball was given in his honor on the 23d. December 1 he transferred command of the army to the Baron de Vioménil, and set out for Philadelphia, where he was to embark to return to France.

From Philadelphia he proceeded to Annapolis, Maryland, arriving on Sunday, January 12, 1783. On the morning of Friday, January 17, Count Rochambeau with his suite embarked on board his Most Christian Majesty's frigate, the "Emerande," for France.

The French fleet departed from Boston December 23 for the West Indies. Upon arrival there it was met with news that peace had been declared between Great Britain and France. After refitting, the fleet sailed for home, arriving in harbor of Brest June, 1783. The troops had been absent since the spring of 1780.

MILITARY DESCENDANTS OF DEACON THOMAS PARKER.

A RECORD, not complete, but sufficiently so to possess great interest, has been prepared by Dr. M. G. Parker, and has been inserted, inasmuch as Deacon Thomas Parker (1605–1683) was ancestor of nearly all the Parkers represented in our Society and of all the Reading branch.

Moses Greeley Parker, M.D., Lowell, Massachusetts, was the grandson of Peter and great-grandson of Kendall, who went from Reading to Dracut in 1740, and settled on land partly in Dracut and partly in Methuen, building his house and barn on the Merrimack River road, one-quarter of a mile west of the Methuen line. The barn is still standing. Kendall was great-grandson and Peter was great-great-grandson of Deacon Thomas Parker, the emigrant, who sailed from London, England, March 11, 1635, in the "Suzan & Ellin." He first settled in Lynn, remaining there, with his wife Amy, about two years. They moved to Reading, where he was one of the founders of the church and a commissioner, with Deacon Thomas Kendall and Deacon William Cowdrey, to try "small cases."

Deacon Thomas Parker was represented in the Colonial Wars by five sons, three grandsons, eight great-grandsons, and eleven great-great-grandsons,— twenty-six by the name of Parker and one by the name of Munroe, son of his great-grand-daughter Deliverance Parker Munroe. At the Boston Tea Party his great-grandson Jonathan, disguised as an Indian, was present. This Jonathan carried off two British cannon in his farm wagon, and concealed them in Muddy Pond woods. They were heard from at the battle of Bunker Hill, and may now be seen at the top of Bunker Hill Monument, properly inscribed. On the 19th of April, at the battle of Lexington and Concord, he was represented by five great-grandsons, Kendall being one of the five, and twenty-three great-great-grandsons,— twenty-five by the name of Parker and three descendants of his great-grand-daughters.

In the Revolutionary War, Deacon Thomas had three great-grandsons, Kendall being one of the three, and thirty-two great-great-grandsons, Peter being one of these,— twenty-eight by the name of Parker and seven descendants of his great-grand-daughters.

The following is a list, not complete, of the descendants of Deacon Thomas Parker in the battle of Lexington and Concord. One reference is given, more are accessible: —

RESOLUTIONS ON MR. BARRETT.

THE fact that, together with his Presidency of the National Society and his long tenure of the office of President of the State Society, Mr. Barrett was also the first on the roll of the Boston Chapter, would seem to make it fitting that the Resolutions passed by the National Society and the Boston Chapter should also find a place in our Historical Sketch. The Resolutions of the Old Suffolk Chapter have also been furnished for publication.

The Society is indebted to the family of Mr. Barrett for permission to reproduce the photograph from the studio of Elmer Chickering.

RESOLUTIONS PASSED BY THE NATIONAL SOCIETY.

Whereas the members of the National Society of the Sons of the American Revolution have learned with sincere sorrow of the death of its beloved President, Edwin Shepard Barrett, of Concord, Massachusetts, we take the first opportunity at this our annual meeting of expressing our grief at his sudden and unexpected decease. Therefore

Be it Resolved, That in his death this Society has lost an efficient, a dignified, and an able presiding officer, a zealous advocate of its course, and an earnest and untiring worker in the enlargement and upbuilding of its patriotic principles.

The world has lost a man of unblemished character, whose every instinct was to improve and benefit mankind, and his family a kind and loving husband and father.

Resolved, That in his death we recognize the hand of Him who doeth all things well, believing that this Society and our country have been stimulated to good and righteous works through the influence of his example.

Resolved, That we extend to his family our sympathy in their hour of bereavement, and trust the great Commander of nations may comfort them in their sorrow.

Resolved, That a copy of these Resolutions be spread on the records of this Society, and a copy be sent the family of the deceased.

RESOLUTIONS PASSED BY THE BOSTON CHAPTER.

Whereas the President of our National Society of Sons of the American Revolution, Honorable Edwin Shepard Barrett, has been suddenly removed from us by death, be it

Resolved, That we, the Boston Chapter of Sons of the American Revolution, express our sincere sorrow and our sense of loss, both personal and as a Chapter, in the death of Mr. Barrett. He was a charter member of this Chapter, and devoted to all its interests. As President of the Massachusetts Society, and later of the National Society, he won our increasing admiration and sustained our highest regard.

We hold him in affectionate honor for his high character, his genial presence, his wide influence, his intelligent and devoted loyalty to the ends of this organization, and for his patriotic and devout integrity. It is with most unusual sorrow that we bring ourselves to think of his departure from us, and we cannot too strongly express our estimate of the loss sustained by our own and kindred organizations. We extend to his family our sincerest sympathy, and count ourselves among those who mourn beside his grave. As the world is poorer for his death, so it is permanently richer by reason of his life.

RESOLUTIONS PASSED BY THE OLD SUFFOLK CHAPTER.

Whereas it has pleased Divine Providence to remove from our midst Edwin Shepard Barrett, President, General of the Society of the Sons of the American Revolution, ex-President of the Massachusetts Society of the American Revolution, and an honored member of its Board of Management; and

Whereas it is but just that a fitting recognition of his life of usefulness and his many virtues should be made by those who had the privilege of coming within the bright sphere of his manly and helpful influence,— therefore, be it

Resolved, That, while the members of Old Suffolk Chapter of Chelsea, Revere, and Winthrop, Sons of the American Revolution, bow to the will of the Most High in humble submission to Him who doeth all things well, yet none the less do we mourn most sincerely the loss from earthly companionship of a true friend, compatriot, and man.

Resolved, That in the death of Edwin Shepard Barrett the society of which he was the honored head has lost one ever ready to proffer the hand to aid and the voice to encourage our Chapter, and whose earnest endeavors were exerted for its welfare and prosperity; a friend who was dear to us all; a citizen whose upright life was a standard of emulation to us all.

Resolved, That the heartfelt sympathy of this Chapter be extended to his family in their affliction and to the society in its great loss.

Besides the foregoing the State Societies of California, Maine, and Rhode Island, the Worcester Chapter, and the Daughters of the American Revolution of Massachusetts adopted resolutions of respect and sympathy.
